

'Pink Goes Red' event held for American Heart Month

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated, Eta Omega Omega Chapter and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Incorporated Bronx Alumnae Chapter held a 'Pink Goes Red' event at Forest Gym, 955 Tinton Avenue, for American Heart Month on Saturday, February 1. Activities featured at the event included free blood pressure and glucose screenings, health and nutrition tips, self defense courses for kids and zumba for adults.

P.S. 89 Panthers cheerleaders performance. Photo by Jewel Webber

Claire Anselmo from the American Heart Association. Photo by Jewel Webber

Participants, board members and members of both Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Bronx Chapter, and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. Photo by Laura Stone

Lincoln Hospital's Dr. Minette Haden with husband Styart and daughter Juleen. Photo by Laura Stone

Pink Goes Red smoothie station. Photo by Jewel Webber

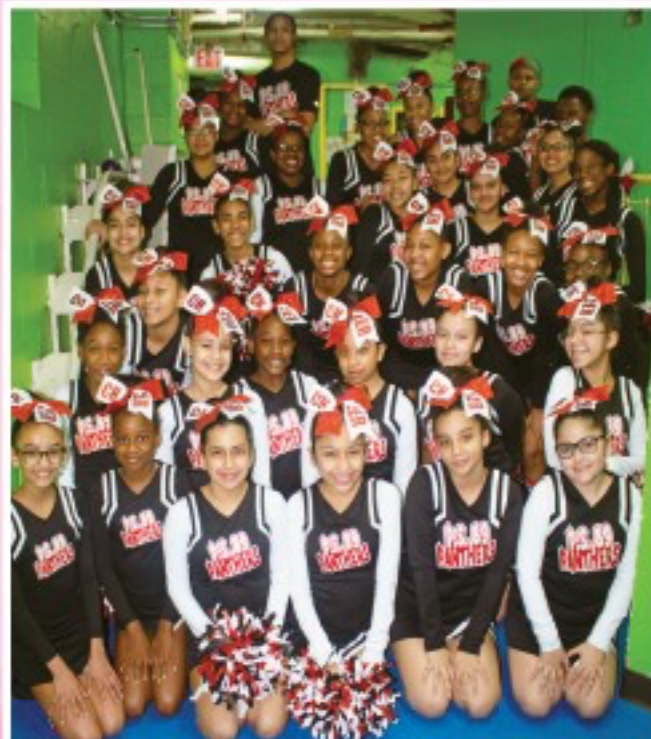

(l-r) Katherine Acevedo, Alpha Kappa Alpha vice president, Aronda Starks-Bowman, Pink Goes Red chairwoman, Donna Joseph, Alpha Kappa Alpha president, Karen Skinner-Parkes, Bronx Alumni Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta member, and Erin Warner. Photo by Jewel Webber

Delta Sigma Theta members Tiease Epps-Murray, Edith Bly-Jenkins, Sharon Ricks, Neysa Lewis and Regina Bowman. Photo by Laura Stone

Lincoln Hospital's Dr. Minette Haden speaks about the importance of blood pressure, blood sugar, exercise, diabetes and controlling heart disease. Photo by Laura Stone

P.S. 89 Panthers cheerleading team. Photo by Jewel Webber

(l-r) Kristina Blackwood, collegiate transition chair, Sharon Ricks, Bronx Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Member, Tiease Epps-Murray, co-chair membership, Leslie Hall, Lakisha Brooks, Delta Sigma Theta member, and Regina Bowman. Photo by Jewel Webber

(l-r) Donna Joseph, American Heart Association's Claire Anselmo, Aronda Starks and Katherine Acevedo. Photo by Laura Stone

(l-r) Samantha King, her son Joy, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority vice president Katherine Acevedo, Rakia Smith-Carter and Diane Johnson with her son Mason. Photo by Laura Stone